

Javier Argota Sánchez-Vaquerizo

Senior Researcher
Professorship of Computational Social Science
Department of Humanities, Social and Political Sciences, ETH Zurich
Google Scholar, 2 October 2026: 837 citations, h-index 11, i10-index 11

Profile Architect and urban scientist whose research combines computational modelling, digital-twin simulation and behavioural studies of human perception in the built environment. Since October 2026 Senior Researcher at the Professorship of Computational Social Science at ETH Zurich, following a postdoctoral position on the ERC-funded project Co-Evolving City Life and co-investigator work with Singapore’s Future Cities Laboratory. His work develops participatory, data-driven simulation frameworks that translate urban complexity into actionable insight for planners, policymakers and citizens, advancing transparency and accountability in governance. Doctor of Sciences (ETH Zurich, 2024), M.Sc. in Computational Design (Carnegie Mellon University, Fulbright Scholar) and architect (ETSAM, Madrid). Recipient of the CSIC Archimedes Prize. His research and entrepreneurial work has been exhibited at the Venice Biennale and published in leading journals.

Academic appointments	Oct 2026 – Present	Senior Researcher. ETH Zurich, Zurich (Switzerland). Professorship of Computational Social Science (COSS), Department of Humanities, Social and Political Sciences (D-GESS). Funded directly by the Professorship. Fixed-term position (ETH function: Established Researcher I, level 9). Lecturer in fall semesters: [851-0467-00L] From Traffic Modeling to Smart Cities and Digital Democracies, with Prof. Dr. Dirk Helbing.
	Oct 2024 – Sep 2026	Lecturer and Postdoctoral Researcher. ETH Zurich, Zurich (Switzerland). Professorship of Computational Social Science (COSS), D-GESS. Project: Co-Evolving City Life (CoCi), funded by the European Research Council (ERC) in the first year (Oct 2024 – Sep 2025) and by the Professorship in the second year (Oct 2025 – Sep 2026). Course: [851-0467-00L] From Traffic Modeling to Smart Cities and Digital Democracies.
	Jul 2022 – May 2026	Researcher, then Co-Investigator. Future Cities Lab Global, Singapore-ETH Centre (SEC), Singapore. Researcher Jul 2022 – Aug 2025, Co-Investigator Aug 2025 – May 2026. Project: [SUE] Semantic Urban Elements.
	Oct 2020 – Sep 2024	Doctoral Researcher. ETH Zurich, Zurich (Switzerland). Professorship of Computational Social Science (COSS), D-GESS. Projects: Co-Evolving City Life (CoCi), funded by the ERC; Semantic Urban Elements (SUE), Future Cities Lab Global, funded by SEC.
	Jun 2018 – Dec 2018	Research Associate and Principal Investigator. Carnegie Mellon University, Pittsburgh, PA (USA). Project: “Understanding Public Space Use in Market Square”, new metrics on the utilization and design of the built environment from computer vision and machine learning. Commissioned by Pittsburgh Downtown Partnership. Funded by Heinz Endowments, Metro 21 Institute for Smart Cities, and Pittsburgh Supercomputing Center.
	Feb 2017 – May 2018	Research Assistant. School of Architecture, Carnegie Mellon University, Pittsburgh, PA (USA). Project “Tracing Design Ecologies”, directed by Daniel Cardoso Llach. Data visualization and analysis of design workflows in BIM and cross-disciplinary environments using network science and text mining.

	May 2017 – Jul 2017	Research Intern. Georgia Institute of Technology, Atlanta, GA (USA). Data Science for Social Good program funded by NSF. Project “Cycle Atlanta: Seeing like a bike”, sensor fusion and machine learning for assessing and improving the biking infrastructure of Atlanta. Team: Dr. C. Le Dantec (dir.), M. Lee, N. Mannariat, E. Pantoja.
Education	Oct 2020 – Sep 2024	Doctor of Sciences (Dr. sc. ETH). ETH Zurich, Zurich (Switzerland). Professorship of Computational Social Science (COSS), D-GESS. Thesis: Simulating Urban Complexity for City Co-Creation on Three Scales. Defense: Sep 2024. Committee: Prof. Dr. Dirk Helbing (advisor), Prof. Dr. Christoph Hölscher (co-advisor), Prof. Dr. Mike Batty.
	Aug 2016 – May 2018	M.Sc. in Computational Design. Carnegie Mellon University, Pittsburgh, PA (USA). Fulbright Program. Focus on data science, computer vision, machine learning and algorithmic thinking. Thesis: What You See Is What You Get. Data-Informed Workflow in Design for Architecture and Urbanism. Advisor: Daniel Cardoso Llach, Ph.D. Co-advisors: Stefan Gruber and Molly Wright Steenson, Ph.D.
	Sep 2005 – Nov 2014	Architect (MArch), Highest Honors. School of Architecture of Madrid (ETSAM), Polytechnic University of Madrid (Spain). Thesis project “Hypermobility Commuter City”: big data and algorithms as a source for urban interventions in large transportation infrastructures in Madrid. Advisor: Andrés Cánovas Alcaraz, Ph.D.
	Aug 2008 – May 2009	International visiting student. College of Architecture, Illinois Institute of Technology, Chicago, IL (USA). Dean’s List, May 2009.

Teaching and supervision

Courses, ETH Zurich

Sep 2026 – Dec 2026	Lecturer. [851-0467-00L] From Traffic Modeling to Smart Cities and Digital Democracies. With Prof. Dr. Dirk Helbing.
Sep 2025 – Dec 2025	Lecturer. [851-0467-00L] From Traffic Modeling to Smart Cities and Digital Democracies. With Prof. Dr. Dirk Helbing.
Sep 2022 – Dec 2022	Lecturer. [851-0585-41L] Computational Social Science Seminar (3 ECTS). Prof. Dr. Dirk Helbing.
Sep 2022	Lecturer. [851-0601-00L] Participatory Resilience (3 ECTS), hackathon course format.
Mar 2022	Lecturer. MOOC Self-organization in Pedestrian and Traffic Systems and Logistics. Module 3: Introduction to Do-It-Yourself Traffic Simulation.
Sep 2021 – Dec 2021	Assistant. [851-0585-41L] Computational Social Science Seminar (3 ECTS). Prof. Dr. Dirk Helbing.

Supervision

Apr 2026 – Sep 2026	Co-supervisor, bachelor thesis. “Simulating Urban Visual Perception with Pluralistic AI Agents”. Author: Aristaios Amin. Supervisor: Prof. Dr. Dirk Helbing. D-INFK (Department of Informatics), ETH Zurich.
Feb 2025 – Sep 2025	Co-supervisor, master thesis. “OGD4All: A Framework for Accessible Interaction with Geospatial Open Government Data based on Large Language Models”. Author: Michael Siebenmann. In collaboration with ESRI. D-INFK (Department of Informatics), ETH Zurich.
Sep 2019 – Dec 2019	Interns’ mentor. La Rioja International University (UNIR), Spain (online). Master’s in Artificial Intelligence, professional internship at Urban Data Eye. Technical challenge: neural network architectures and transfer learning for object detection.
Jun 2018 – Dec 2018	Co-advisor, master thesis. “La Ciudad XYZ. Benchmarking del desarrollo sostenible” (The XYZ City. Sustainable development benchmarking). Author: Alfredo Carrato Gómez. University Master in Architectural Communication (MACA), ETSAM-UPM, Madrid (Spain).

Earlier teaching

Jan 2016 – Jun 2016	Lecturer and instructor. Polytechnic University of Madrid (Spain). Specialization Graduate Program in Infographics, Multimedia Presentation for Architectural Communication (MIAU): Geometric Modelling (digital morphologies, disciplinary simulations, advanced workflows); Representation (diagramming and graphic representation); Presentation and Multimedia (web).
Oct 2015 – Jun 2016	Lecturer and instructor. Polytechnic University of Madrid (Spain). University Master in Architectural Communication (MACA), Instrumental Fundamentals module: Mechanisms and Instrumentation for Communicative Generation (3 ECTS); Mechanisms and Instrumentation for Communicative Production (3 ECTS).

Jul 2015	Instructor. ETSAM-UPM, Madrid. Intensive course Workflows (organized by the Students' Union, daETSAM), with Sergio del Castillo.
May 2015	Invited professor. ETSAM-UPM, Madrid. Drawing, Analysis and Conception 2 (instructor: Atxu Amann), video edition.
Apr 2016; 2015; 2013; 2012; 2010	Tutor. ETSAM-UPM, Madrid. Core course Drawing, Analysis & Ideation 2, design competition Prontuario Sika.
